Forensic Surveying (or “Did Woods Byrne?”)
By Emeritus Professor John Fryer FIS FSSI

John Fryer is the Emeritus Professor of Surveying at the University of Newcastle. Professor Fryer is the author of over 200 research publications and co-author of the book ‘Applications of 3D Measurement from Images’. Since his retirement, he has been involved in using photogrammetry to help solve crimes. He assists police detectives with crime scene measurements, including cold cases, employing new measurements which weren’t taken at the time of the original investigation but now could be important and can be deduced from old photographs or video. John has included most recent cases in this new presentation. A member of the Board of Surveyors for over 20 years and now an advisor to BOSSI, John Fryer is a highly entertaining speaker.

The Impact of Natural Disasters on the Cadastre

By Narelle Underwood MIS MSSSI

2011 Australian Young Professional of the Year, Narelle Underwood was awarded the 2011 Surveyor-General’s International Fellowship to undertake some fascinating research into the effect of natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods and bushfires on cadastral boundaries. This involved visiting some of the world’s disaster hotspots, including Japan, Italy, California and New Zealand. As the Cumberland Group’s Representative on the ISNSW Board, it is appropriate that the first presentation of her research is to the Cumberland Group at our October Meeting.

Also on the night will be the Group AGM plus the usual updates on the Institution, SMIC, BOSSI, Seniors Group and the Young Surveyors Group.
